

JULY 2011

Light in the Shadows

"Let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven." Matt. 5: 16

Ever Ancient, Ever New

Late have I loved you, O Beauty ever ancient, ever new, late have I loved you! You were within me, but I was outside, and it was there that I searched for you. In my unloveliness I plunged into the lovely things which you created. You were with me, but I was not with you. Created things kept me from you; yet if they had not been in you they would have not been at all. You called, you shouted, and you broke through my deafness. You flashed, you shone, and you dispelled my blindness. You breathed your fragrance on me; I drew in breath and now I pant for you. I have tasted you, now I hunger and thirst for more. You touched me, and I burned for your peace. —From the Confessions of Saint Augustine

And Jesus said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old." —Matthew 13:52

July, I will be on vacation. On the one hand, I will spend some of the time at home undertaking general household repairs, chores, painting, cleaning, etc. with a strong hope of doing some gardening. On the other hand, I will pursue the more normative understanding of vacation; joining Christina and Joseph in Kentucky for a week, and then along with them spending a week on the beach in North Carolina joining with my siblings, their spouses and children. All in all, the whole will be a time of recreation.

To be quite truthful, in writing the above, if recreation, it doesn't sound terribly restful. I, however, am not certain the term vacation necessarily connotes a state of rest, but rather of change; the leaving off, or vacating, of ones normal routines and tasks. This I will be doing.

The other thing I prayerfully, and with God's help, hope will occur is the always necessary renewal of spiritual life. To this end I have set myself the task, not onerous but pleasant, of reading several spiritual autobiographies; one ancient and one new.

The ancient work is the Confessions of Saint Augustine. It is now forty some years ago, while still in adolescent, that I last read it. There are memorable quotes from within it that I have retained all these years, but it is high time to

Anthony B. Robinson, "Be Clear About Mission"

St. Luke's hosted Anthony B. Robinson on Sunday, June 5 at the 10:00 o'clock service of Holy Eucharist and afterward at a brunch and discussion in Willard Hall. For many of us, having read one or more of his books, it was a chance to hear the voice behind the words and to get a sense of the personality of the author who has presented "a third way" to thousands of people.

In both his sermon and in his presentation at the mid-year Diocesan Convention the previous day, he made clear the large and small ways in which the church's milieu has changed over the past 50 years. He spoke of the centrality of the Gospel and the need, always, to be clear about mission. Otherwise, we run the risk of trying either to resuscitate a Christendom institution or to create something that's "new and improved" but has no sense of direction.

In the "Question & Answer" following the brunch, Anthony shared some of what he has observed in his travels across the country—that young families are indeed interested in finding faith communities, and that the idea of the Catechumenate is not dead—and noted that he sensed the Holy Spirit at work here at St. Luke's. He also couldn't get over how much space we have here in Vermont. In fact, he commented on that in his blog the following week!

His visit was just two weeks ahead of the Vestry Retreat, and provided all of us with fresh energy for the work that took place over that weekend at Blue Hill Farm. Anthony's website, www.anthonbrobinson.com, contains postings on various topics each week, including notes from his visits to other faith communities. As we sharpen our sense of vision about what things will look like here at St. Luke's in the months and years ahead, it is inspiring to hear news of how exciting that can be! —Martha Stretton

From the Senior Warden

Deepening Love

I've been thinking a lot about those words since the Vestry Retreat. When I gaze around St. Luke's, I see the love of Christ and the love of one another all around me, everywhere. That love shines during the Eucharist, where the Altar Guild have ironed and polished and lovingly placed the special linens and vessels. It sounds when the organ peals and the Choir lift their voices in love and glory. Father Paul often weeps during his sermon, Father Sanford makes us think and Donna lights up the church with her parting alleluias, all of it done in love for Christ and love for one another. The flowers in our gardens are tended with love. The coffee is made and the kitchen filled with good food, lovingly prepared. Ushers and greeters, lectors and acolytes and chalice bearers all do their duties with a 'glad and joyful heart'. Tables shift and tablecloths appear and floors sparkle and recycling and sanding gets done, and each time it is done for the Glory of God, the love of Christ, and the love of one another.

Each of us is so blessed to be a part of this loving community, growing and striving to do His work. Thanks be to our Loving God.

—Kathryn Wright

reread the whole. Augustine for good and ill was/is the father of the theology of Western Christianity. The theology of his Confession however is not academic but experiential. It is his spiritual journey; the first such of a long line of that special and significant genre of Christian writing. The new work I am planning to read is Ian Morgan Cron's Jesus, My Father, The CIA and Me; A Memoir...of Sorts. As the author of Chasing Francis, a novel which I especially appreciated for its insights both on Saint Francis and modern Christianity, I look forward to reading this spiritual autobiography...of sorts.

I am more and more convinced that Christianity can only be communicated by sharing our spiritual journeys as they have intersected with the Gospels. I am equally convinced that we, all of us, to become disciples must be rooted in Scripture, and its intersection with the spiritual journeys of the many others from the two thousand year history of this great adventure called Christianity.

"I am more and more convinced that Christianity can only be communicated by sharing our spiritual journeys as they have intersected with the Gospels"

—Paul Brannock-Wanter

Sometimes in my more somber moments of reflection I am led to think that there is at present a widespread Christian/Spiritual illiteracy that plagues most modern manifestations of Western Christianity; both stifling our witness, and our growth in discipleship/depth of faith, as well as in numbers. Whether on vacation or not, we need to avail ourselves of the treasures of our faith both old and new. Take up and read.

In Christ's love,

Paul

A Note to St. Luke's

Dear Paul and the Good Folks of St. Luke's,

How joyful it was for me to be with you on Sunday for such a fine Eucharist! Your energy as a Christian community is Spirit-filled in vibrant ways (I can't imagine what Pentecost will be like—Wow!!!) On behalf of all our diocese, I thank you for welcoming Tony Robinson and hosting him for the morning. Your gracious hospitality was truly appreciated.

Blessings,

Susan Ohlidal

	May	Jan.-May	Budget	% of Budget
Pledge & Income	$ 12,550.54	$ 50,776.14	$ 111,806.00	45.41%
All Other Income	$ 985.04	$ 10,495.68	$ 22,750.00	46.13%
TOTAL INCOME	$ 13,535.58	$ 61,271.82	$ 134,556.00	45.54%
TOTAL EXPENSES	$ 11,780.92	$ 55,727.95	$ 141,428.20	39.40%

The figures speak for themselves. To stay on budget, at the end of May income and expenses would have been 41.07% so once again we are ahead on income and slightly behind in expenses. Please bear in mind that 2011 has a deficit budget of just under $7,000 and we do want to make this up by the end of the year. It looks like we are on track for this to happen. Please remember to keep up your pledges over the summer so that we don't fall behind. —Sally Hoover, Treasurer

Vestry Outlines Plan for St. Luke's Vision Statement at May Retreat

The Vestry held its annual two-day retreat on June 17-18, graciously hosted by Jane Davis and Jean Hancock at Blue Hill Farm. We worshipped together, we ate meals together, we took communion together, and we found ourselves growing ever closer as a group. It was a calm and loving environment that refreshed us all.

With able facilitation by Martha Stretton, we talked about personal faith and shared the hopes and dreams that all of us have for St. Luke's. We prayed for strength and wisdom as we worked to develop a new Vision Statement for St. Luke's, building upon the new Statement of Purpose that was adopted at last year's retreat: "St. Luke's is an intentional Christian community, deepening faith and broadening love."

What follows is the result of our efforts.

"St. Luke's is an intentional Christian community..."

- Get children and youth into the building.
- Initiate small group gatherings in homes for sharing, Bible study and Holy Eucharist.
- Go on (inter)national service trips, making them intergenerational.
- Make Holy Eucharist more intimate, connected, and integrated with our daily lives.

"...deepening faith..."

- Build small group gatherings for
 - Christian meditation
 - The Daily Office
- Examine the role of Christian Education
- Implement:
 - Movies
 - Dinner church
 - Interfaith education
 - Education about Holy Eucharist

- Attend off-site retreats

"... and broadening love."

- Develop and implement Prayer Partners
- Re-energize the Outreach Committee

In the months to come, give prayerful thought to these ideas and talk or share your own with a Vestry member. Our vision is a work in progress and one that we all need to have a voice and responsibility in developing.

—Kathryn Wright

Seeking God

Sometimes, God, You're not very easy to see. Maybe that's because I'm being half-hearted about my seeking. Help me to seek You with my whole heart. Remind me to seek You in everything I do, wherever I am. Amen

John DesLauriers Receives Good & Faithful Servant Award

John DesLauriers has been a member of St. Luke's Church for 25 years and on Sunday, June 5th, he was honored by receiving the "Good & Faithful Servant Award." John has served our community of faith in many capacities over the years. He has been a Senior Warden, a Junior Warden, a lector, usher, Fall Tag Sale co-chairman, and has been on numerous committees throughout the years. He is always willing to lend a hand in his good-natured and loving manner and has shared his soft-spoken wisdom and deep faith at many meetings and gatherings. Much of John's ministry is done behind the scenes in a quiet and unassuming manner. Replacing a light bulb he notices has burnt out; contacting a repairman to fix the furnace; painting a door; acquiring a handicapped lift and then spending many hours of his spare time installing it and making sure it functions correctly; building the two wooden crosses that reside on the bell tower and the main building—the list goes on. We are truly blessed by John's presence at St. Luke's and the fine example he sets as a Christian believer and caring individual.

Also on this day, Jean Hancock presented the Altar Guild members (on behalf of Adelaide Johnson) and her team of Alcolytes small tokens of appreciation for their ministries this past year. Senior Warden Kathryn Wright congratulated recent High School graduates, Kyle Gagnon and Patrick Wilson and presented them with a gift of a cross on a chain. Despite the somewhat dreary weather that day, the sounds of joyful talk and laughter echoed throughout Willard Hall a sure indication everyone was having a good time. A special thank you to Bonnie & Lew Watters and Kathryn Wright for organizing the fabulous picnic fare.

Learning Timelessness

We tend to think of our lives in terms of past, present and future. Therefore, we easily become time-bound, living under the restrictions of clocks, calendars and seasons.

The concern of the truly spiritual person, however, is the "now"—that suspension of the flow of hours, days and years. God, who isn't time-bound, breaks in upon our lives, and we sense, however distantly, the eternal. And we're refreshed, healed and lifted up.

The experience of the eternal may happen any time, even amid distraction. But the witness of the mystics is that it most frequently occurs in the time of quiet abandonment in prayer. As we grow spiritually, we become less time-bound and discover that the God of grace isn't limited to the passage of the hours, days and years.

A Christian Symbol: Seeds

The Bible often uses seeds as symbols of faith or God's Word. In the Old Testament, seeds also refer to offspring. Jesus said people who believe in him can perform mighty deeds with "faith the size of a mustard seed" (Luke 17:6, NRSV).

Many of Jesus' teachings use seed imagery; for example, in the parable of the four soils, he said the seed, God's Word, can grow only when people hear it, "hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patient endurance" (Luke 8:15, NRSV).

Shrimp Boil III A Gourmet Success

This year's Ascension Day Shrimp Boil drew 23 people to Willard Hall following the 6:30 p.m. service of Holy Eucharist. Hosted by the choir, it was truly spearheaded by Jane Davis who kept the master list throughout the week.

Truth be told, we (the choir) found it to be a very different experience this year. Usually we gather around 5:15 to boil the shrimp, toss the salad, cut the desserts, and set the tables. This year the boiling was "outsourced" to our home kitchens (because we are currently sans a stove in Willard Hall) and it just wasn't nearly as much fun!

But the sink still worked so we all gathered afterward to clean up, with lots of help from Kyle Gagnon.

Next year we look forward to another round, when we will offer some alternatives for those folks with shellfish allergies. —Martha Stretton

Richard Crocker Receives Housing Trust Award

At the June 8th Annual Meeting and Picnic of Windham & Windsor Housing Trust, Richard Crocker (a member of St. Luke's Church) was awarded the 2011 Thomas C. Yahn Housing Leadership Award.

"Rockingham Area Community Land Trust (RACLT) has had many dedicated volunteers over the years, but none as dedicated as its current President, Richard Crocker," said Connie Snow at the award ceremony.

Richard first became involved when he purchased a home through the Land Trust in 1995, and joined the board of directors soon after that. He served on the board from 1995-2000, the last two years as President. Under Richard's leadership, RACLT developed the Exner Block in Bellows Falls, and became a chartered member of NeighborWorks America. After a sabbatical, Richard returned to the board in December 2004, serving as Treasurer, Vice President, and ultimately as President from 2008-2011. During this period, the restoration of Union Square in Windsor was completed, as well as the Williams, Pine and South Street redevelopment projects in Bellows Falls.

"Perhaps because Richard has been a Land Trust homeowner, he understands why we do this work on a personal level", said Snow. —from the 2011 Spring Newsletter of the Windham & Windsor Housing Trust.

Editor's Note: Our congratulations to Richard!!!

Quiet Space

"Rest is not idleness," said John Lubbock, "and to lie sometimes on the grass on a summer day listening to the murmur of water or watching the clouds float across the sky is hardly a waste of time."

Most of us need more, not less, rest built into our daily routine. Only when we are quiet can we hear God's whisper. Summer is a great time to find a peaceful, outdoor spot to read, rest and pray — even if only for a few minutes. God is eagerly waiting for us to make space for him.

The Outreach Corner

Back To School Collection For PINS

PINS (Partners in Service) is one of the organizations that St. Luke's Church supports through its Outreach Program. We work closely with the Vermont Department of Child and Family Services. Its mission is to bring together faith communities with human service agencies. They promote the resiliency and success of children and youth who have been victims of abuse and neglect, ranging in age from infants to young adults. With the economic downturn the caseload at the Springfield office has greatly increased.

For the past 2 summers the PINS committee asked the congregation for back-to-school items to give in backpacks for kids from kindergarten to seniors in high school. The first year we filled 25 backpacks. Last year we were able to fill 34 backpacks and give them to the Department of Human Services in Springfield.

We will accept backpacks of all sizes; new or clean, lightly used. The items we need are: 3-ring binders with lined paper, 3-ring 9x12" plastic folders with pockets, pens, pencils, sharpeners, erasers, rulers, 8x10" spiral notebooks, crayons, construction paper, and scissors (round tips for young kids).

The collection will go on through July and end August 14th. The collection bin will be in the back of the church. In mid-July there are usually some good sales on school items at many stores. Look for their flyers in the Sunday papers.

The need is great and every kid returning to school likes to have new equipment, especially these kids who don't often get new things.

Much Appreciated

Once again the "summer camp collection" sponsored by PINS was successful. Besides duffle bags, which are always in demand at Child and Family Services in Springfield, we were able to deliver a selection of flashlights, flip-flops, journals and pens, toiletry items and sun block cream. These items will be distributed by social workers to foster kids or to families in crisis for the children attending day or overnight camp this summer.

Thank you to all who donated to this endeavor. This annual collection is very much appreciated by the staff at Child and Family Services as St. Luke's Church is the only PINS church in the area to assist with donation of summer camp items. —Marcia Clinton

How You Can Help With Operation Christmas Child

Thanks again to everyone for saving all of the materials for us to make the games and toys for disadvantaged children around the world. Think of all the smiles we can bring to these kids with just a few recycled toys!

We will be collecting any kind of clothing for the various age groups of 2-14 years old. Most of the boxes we send are for boys, so any type of T-shirt, baseball hat, socks, underwear, etc. will be appreciated.

We can always use any kind of items you feel a needy child might be able to use at any time.

We are still looking for cloth placemats, blue jeans, and neckties to make backpacks. We can always use soap and washcloths as we seem to run out of those first. We can also use any type of shoe box or similarly sized box or plastic container with a removable lid.

If you have any questions or want to know more about Operation Christmas Child or how you can become involved in this special ministry, please speak to us at church. Again thank you for all your support!

Photos Online: Parish Life Online

Ever since the church website was launched in 2007, we have had a free public place to exhibit and share photos of our parish life. First, there are photo sets, so a viewer can see a series of photos by subject: "Maple Fest," or "Reidt Ordination," or most recently, "Anthony Robinson." This service is free and anyone in our parish can contribute a visual story using the secure sign-in and password. There are limitations and these are easily overcome by paying a small annual fee to upgrade to a "pro" account. I have one for my personal and professional works, which allows me to organize an unlimited number of photos into collections, sets, galleries, tags, people, archives, favorites etc. (Go to www.flickr.com/photos/ourchester)

All of these services enhances our place in the world wide web which is a visual medium. The Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. utilizes Flickr to publicly share their collections which would otherwise not be seen.

If you believe part of our future in moving forward in the 21st century is about a meaningful presence on the world wide web, I would like to talk to you more about how we can share our faith in this medium.

But first, visit www.flickr.com/photos/stlukeschester

What Are Your Talents? We Hope You'll Share Them for The August Supper Silent Auction

Last year, you will recall, we had a silent auction in conjunction with the fall tag sale. This was a Silent Auction of the Collected Talents of St. Luke's Church members. There were items which included photography lessons, kayak lessons, meals, knitting lessons, and the list goes on. Not only did folks get to enjoy the items they bid on, it also was a way to bring the parish closer together.

This year the auction will be in conjunction with the August Supper on August 6. What can you offer up for auction? The sky is the limit—maybe a balloon ride? Any items will be gratefully accepted. Please contact Bill Hoyt at 824-5055 or Bhoyham1@myfairpoint.net. Let's make this year's auction even more successful than last year's. All items should be offered by August 1st in order that we may give them proper promotion.

People are among the most compelling subjects we photograph, and our best images often result when they're not directly being posed. But there's much more to great candid pictures of people than just shooting when they're not looking at the camera. You may be a wedding and event photographer, enjoy traveling, or simply want to add another dimension to pictures you take of family and friends. And, you may or may not be a Canon EOS user, regardless; this two-hour presentation on Saturday, July 30 will give you both information and inspiration to raise the bar on your photo images of people.

Canon USA's Rudy Winston will share his years of candid shooting experience with you—including the things to look for to elevate an ordinary candid to a memorable one, how to capture peak moments, using the environment to enhance your message, dealing with the challenges of photographing strangers on the street, and taking maximum advantage of your camera's features. He will discuss equipment, but again, the information will apply to users of all brands of digital SLR cameras. Your travels may take you across town or across the world, but either way, powerful images of the people around us are waiting to be taken. This presentation will show you how images of people simply being themselves can speak as powerfully as the most artfully crafted and carefully posed portraits.

The Art of Candid Workshop will be held on Saturday, July 30th from 5:00-7:00 p.m. in St. Luke's Church Willard Hall. Reservations are required. Call 875-3292 to reserve your spot. Refreshments will be served. Cost is $25 per person.
