Light in the Shadows

"Let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven." Matt. 5: 16

Transience and Transcendence A Meditation for All Saints Day

Let us now sing the praises of famous men and women, ...

But of others there is no memory;
they have perished as though,
they had never existed; ...

But these also were godly men and women,
whose righteous deeds have not been forgotten.
Ecclesiasticus 44: 1, 9a, 10

In the decade between my father's death in 1987 and my mother moving in with me in 1997 during her final illness, I visited her several times at our family home in the far southern suburbs of Pittsburgh. Every time we would take the same known, and winding, journey from and to the airport. Known, because it was a route long ago established by my father as a shortcut. Whether it was such, I was never entirely convinced; one kept faith with the dead. One of the features or markers on this journey was St. John the Baptist Byzantine Catholic Cemetery; a feature not because of any beauty, as it wasn't a particularly attractive cemetery,

*"On All Saints Day,
we remember all
those faithful
believers who have gone before us;
known by many,
known by a few, or
no longer known by any save God."*

—H. Paul Brannock-Wanter

but because you turned onto another road just before or after it. I can no longer remember which. What made the cemetery more noteworthy in that decade after 1987 was that it contained the mortal remains of Andy Warhol, the iconic American artist of the second half of the twentieth century. As pictured on the web, his is a simple grave with a modest monument giving name and dates, having praying hands bottom, a Byzantine cross top, at center, and two palm branches, one to either side. So much for fame: 'All of us go down to the dust;...'

It was Andy Warhol who coined the saying, 'Every individual has 15 minutes of fame.' Whether this is true

St. Luke's Giving Tree Is Beginning to Leaf Out

St. Luke's "Giving Tree" has begun to grow some leaves but there are still many parishioners who need to add their own logo and photo. This is a wonderful way to show how the Lord's work is being manifested outside the walls of our Church. So please do your part. There's an envelope of photos in a basket at the base of the "Giving Tree" for your use. If you don't find one, bring a favorite snapshot from home. The important thing is to do it. This way of sharing our gifts highlights St. Luke's as an intentional Christian community, broadening God's love in the world.

A few weeks ago, The Rev. Angie Emerson, Minister for Stewardship Development of the Diocese, spoke to the parish about our overabundance and material wealth acting as a huge shade tree over our lives, blocking God's love or the sun (Son) from flourishing in our lives. We must work to let the son shine in and part of that effort is reflected in the celebration of everyone in our community of faith!

From the Senior Warden

At the October Vestry Meeting, we received a report on St. Luke's Communications Ministries. This included Pat Fromberger, who produces our Sunday bulletins, LITS, and our Church Directory; and Lew and Bonnie Watters, who handle all our publicity and the church website.

We were all inspired by hearing that Pat has begun using our Statement of Purpose to evaluate how she does her work. She shared with us that she has examined each phrase in our Statement of Purpose to see how her work fits in with it. "Intentional Christian community", "deepening faith", and "broadening love" are nothing more than nice phrases unless we operationalize them and allow them to guide our choices. We all appreciate the love and care with which Pat carries out her ministry, and it is a joy to hand a copy of LITS to a newcomer.

Although Lew and Bonnie could not be present at the meeting, they shared with me that our local publicity is going very, very well. We have had large turnouts for recent events, and many of the attendees are visitors. When you notice an article in the local paper about an upcoming event at St. Luke's, you can know that Lew and Bonnie are responsible for that.

We are blessed to have a church website. It is used by members and non-members, and it allows our church news to be accessed internationally. It is literally a portal into our community. Lew took the initiative to establish this website from scratch and faithfully maintains and updates it with information as it is provided to him. If you have ever visited a website and found outdated information or links that go nowhere, you understand how vital it is to keep the material current. I have been slow at getting the Music Page updated, but it is finally done. If you have not been to the website lately, you might want to visit and check to see if you can update something that's not so current. Lew will be glad to hear from you!

Communications within our parish family and with the community at large are the basis for our ministries. We can't take successful communication for granted. We can be grateful for the wonderful vehicles that we have at St. Luke's.

Next month's Vestry Focus will be on using the Statement of Purpose to guide and define our mission at St. Luke's. This work should not be done by a few,

Transience and Transcendence...

depends upon one's definition of the same. What is true is that the phrase itself has certainly entered into common speech and perhaps fortified a current approach to living in the world that is less than altruistic, and more about oneself; fame is the word for many in the age in which we live.

Fifteen minutes of fame or not, the reality of life for each of us is its transient quality. We can't hold on to any moment of it, or even life itself. All we have is the present moment, albeit informed by the past. All too soon each and every human being becomes a particle of past history, whether known or unknown. Every individual save one. As the old song has it: He lives, he lives, Christ Jesus lives today!

If one believes this, then one must accept that we live in Christ now, and also will live in him, beyond our transient moments in time. This is, and has been, the faith of all saints, known and unknown. This is transcendence or as the Stage Manager in Thornton Wilders' Our Town puts it: 'Now, there are some things we all know, but we don't take 'm out and look at 'm very often. We all know that something is eternal. And it ain't houses and it ain't names, and it ain't earth, and it ain't even the stars... Everybody knows in their bones that something is eternal, and that something has to do with human beings... There's something way down deep that's eternal about every human being.'

On All Saints Day, we remember all those faithful believers who have gone before us; known by many, known by a few, or no longer known by any save God. We remember them because they are still a part of us, and we a part of them, in our long, or short, yet wending, journey into God's eternal.

All of us go down to the dust; yet even at the grace we make our song; Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

*Give rest, O Christ, to your servants with your saints,
Where sorrow and pain are no more,
Neither sighing, but life everlasting. BCP, 499*

In Christ's love,

Paul

because the decisions made during this process will affect everyone. Please come to the Book Study on November 17th at 6:00 p.m. and stay for the Vestry Focus that precedes the business meeting. A clear sense of mission becomes more and more necessary as old models cease to function. Join the conversation!

A Great Turnout for St. Luke's Annual Pet Blessing

Pets (mostly dogs) and their owners came out for one of the best attended Pet Blessings in recent years at St. Luke's on Saturday, October 9th. The total count was 13 dogs and 2 brave cats, who where protectively cuddled in their owners arms. Labs were the dominant breed but there were certainly some other interesting dogs including a handsome pair of Dalmatians, a chow type, and Marica Clinton's cute Dachshunds, "Spike Jones" and her newest family member, "Baby Snooks." Martha Stretton left her dachshund home because he misbehaved last year and instead brought the family cat, "Hercules". It was the beautiful fall day and maybe that had a lot to due with the good attendance. Whatever the reason, Saint Francis, happily looked on from his spot in the Memorial Garden as Father Paul gave a blessing to each pet, assisted by Deacon, Donna Reidt and by Joyce Tiemann, who helped hand out special treats and a St. Francis medal. —Pat Fromberger

You Are Invited to A Choral Evensong Service on November 7

Service of Choral Evensong

The Rector and Choir of St. Luke's invite you to a Service of Choral Evensong on Sunday, November 7, at 4:00 p.m., preceded by an Organ Prelude at 3:45 p.m. Evensong was created by Thomas Cranmer from the sevenfold monastic cycle of prayer—the two offices of Vespers and Compline are combined and set to serene music. Using the liturgy in the Book of Common Prayer, the officiant, choir and congregation make their evening prayers together, chanting the beloved canticles, the Magnificat and the Nunc dimittis. The liturgy also includes prayers of intercession and thanksgiving, Old and New Testament readings, a hymn, and an anthem.

This contemplative service allows the participant to be drawn into a deeper awareness of God. You are cordially invited to end your Sunday afternoon with this gathering of hearts longing for God "as our eyes behold the vesper light." A reception in Willard Hall follows the service.

A Christian Symbol: Lamp

In ancient times, the lamp was more than a light for darkness. It was also a symbol of learning, knowledge, wisdom and enlightenment. Today the lamp still represents those attributes, but more specifically it represents the Word of God. "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path" (Psalms 119:105, NRSV).

Where Have All the Flowers Gone!

An appreciative parishioner asked me to write a piece in praise of the St. Luke's special garden elf. Most of you know that Marcia Clinton has found this special ministry among the weeds, dirt and roots.

Marcia started digging and planting in May of 2002, shortly after coming to St. Luke's. That's almost ten years of service. Why? The only survivor of the jungle was Jacob's Ladder and the "gardens" were a horror show. Most of the plants come from her own gardens. Certainly some of us have given her one or two, here and there. She also frequents Sunshine Acres and gets some favorites from the Cowles' nursery. I asked how frequently she mulches and was surprised it was every other year. The cuttings go home with her and are put on the pile with hers in the woods.

What goes where? That was a pretty simple answer actually. Marcia chooses plants that will share their interesting foliage after the flower has passed away. Placement for color and height is considered of course. Want to guess how much time she devotes to this love of hers? Because she works weekly, usually between our services, she spends usually an hour and a half a week on her knees, bending over and pulling and planting. Just like she doesn't have a favorite dachshund pet, she has no favorite flower, but she does favor peonies, mostly for their fragrance. She calls on her friend Imme, a master gardener, to assist her with tree pruning and pays her off with a lunch. Passersby often stop to chat with her, and I am sure she gets lots of praise. We owe Marcia a debt of thanks, but believe she loves what she does. And it shows.

So I asked this treasure what she'd be doing all winter while the garden is resting. She will ski and do her paper-cutting ornaments for the Christmas Tea. Can you make a poinsettia, Marcia? —Bonnie Watters

Worship Committee Meeting Notes

St. Luke's Worship Committee met recently to make plans for the upcoming Advent/Christmas season. Special services of note are follows:

- Nov. 24 Thanksgiving Eve Holy Eucharist, Rite II:
5:30 Hymn Sing; 6:30 p.m. Service.
- Nov. 28 Advent I – Service with "Confession Stones."
- Dec. 5 Advent II – Wedding during Service.
- Dec. 19 Lessons & Carols Service: 4:00 p.m.
- Dec. 24 Christmas Eve: 2 Services:
7:00 p.m. & 11:00 p.m.
- Dec. 25 Christmas Day – One Service: 10:00 a.m.
- Dec. 31 Holy Name Day Service: 6:30 p.m.
- Jan. 6 Epiphany, Holy Eucharist: 6:30 p.m.
- Jan. 9 Begin Worship Services in Willard Hall. (When we return upstairs will depend on the weather.)

The topic of "Welcomers/Greeters" was discussed. We have been lax of late in following through on this important ministry. Should this be a person separate from the usher? It was suggested we give out a "Welcome Bag" to visitors after the service that would include a copy of LITS; information about the Church and a St. Luke's mug (which we seem to have a plentiful supply of.) Bonnie Johnson volunteered to coordinate this effort.

The question of whether to continue chanting the Psalm on the 1st Sunday of the month was discussed and it was decided to continue to do so.

The next Worship Committee Meeting will be on Sunday, February 20, 2011 at 9:15 a.m..

A Call For Cooks and Hostesses

On Saturday, November 13 Willard Hall will be buzzing with happy quilters from a Country Treasures workshop weekend event. These ladies return sometimes not twice but three or four times because they love our beautiful, extravagant lunches of soup, sandwiches, salads, chips, desserts and drinks. They appreciate the variety and quality. Because all our cooking is our labor and love, St. Luke's gets every penny of each $10 we charge each guest. Please call Bonnie Watters (875-2114) or email her at lewbon@vermontel.net to let her know how you can help and what you will provide. It all begins at 11:00 a.m. and is always a great team effort. —Bonnie Watters

"The greatness of God rouses fear within us, but his goodness encourages us not to be afraid of him. To fear and not be afraid — that is the paradox of faith." —A.W. Tozer

Christmas Tea Plans Are Underway

St. Luke's Annual Christmas Tea & Sale is just around the corner. This year it will be held on Saturday, December 4 from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in Willard Hall. The Christmas Tea is always a special celebration in the community life at St. Luke's and a wonderful opportunity to greet and share a joyful experience with folks from the surrounding communities. We are once again calling upon parishioners to help make this a successful fundraising event. A small group of ladies have been meeting weekly to make Christmas ornaments and other decorations to sell at the tea and others have been busy crafting items at home as well. We are also looking for persons to bake Christmas cookies and other treats for the Tea Table as well as making baked goods for sale at the Food Table. Grandma's Attic could use your contributions of items that will make a great gift for someone or just be a treasure you can't resist! Last year we introduced the "Cookie Exchange" that invited customers to select a dozen of assorted cookies for a fixed price. This year we are calling it "Cookies in a Tin" because we have decorated lots of used 13 oz. coffee cans with festive holiday papers and fabrics. Customers will be able to purchase a tin full of their favorite classic cookies for just $3.00! Depending on the size of the cookies, the tins will hold from 12-18 cookies—a great bargain and a wonderful gift to share with family or friends. So please mark the date on your calendars and be ready to pitch in and lend a helping hand. We cannot do it without you!

Saint Nicholas Doll To Be Ruffled At St. Luke's Christmas Tea

Something very special will be added to this year's Christmas Tea & Sale. Bonnie Watters, a highly imaginative and talented doll maker, has generously donated one of her Bonnie's Bundles dolls to St. Luke's to be raffled off at the end of the Christmas Tea on Saturday, December 4th. The Saint Nicholas Father Christmas Doll in all his glory, was first created in 2008 as a commission from a special customer to accompany her Clara Claus. Saint 'Nick' is 23 inches high and is magnificently garbed in a robe of plush red velour, trimmed in white fur with a holly print lining. He even comes with a velour bag of gifts (albeit the gift boxes are empty!) Valued at $195, this handsome doll is sure to become a prized family heirloom for some lucky recipient this Christmas! Raffle tickets are $5.00 each and will be available in Willard Hall or from Bonnie's Bundles (875-2114.) This is a wonderful opportunity you won't want to miss.

The Outreach Corner

Operation Christmas Child Workshop...A Labor of Love

We had a great time at our game and toy making workshop! Thank you to Joyce Tiemann, Pat Fromberger, my neighbors Bonnie & Annie White, Karen Orchitt, Bonnie Watters and the Pennell family for all their donations of time and materials. Also a special thank you to Susan Purinton for making all of the beautiful hand-knit stuffed animals.

We are now in the process of decorating and filling the shoe boxes. We could use more covers or lids of any kind, tuna fish-sized cans, and shoe boxes. If you would like to decorate and fill a shoe box at home, look for one of the Operation Christmas Child brochures in Willard Hall. As always we welcome any monetary donations and please don't forget to add your spare change to the "Penny Jar" in Willard Hall. This will help defray the cost of mailing the boxes. The deadline for having all completed boxes is Monday, November 15th.

Thank You Rudy!

The Making The Most of Your Camera Workshop, led by Rudy Winston, on October 16th, was a huge success! It was well-attended and everyone raved about the helpful information and the easily understood approach of Rudy's presentation. In fact it was so popular that he is planning an intermediate level camera workshop in the near future. Many thanks to Rudy for donating his time and talent and raising $350 for St. Luke's Church.

"I had the pleasure of attending Rudy Winston's 'Making the Most of Your Camera' workshop at St. Luke's along with more than a dozen other eager attendees. I learned more about the many features on my Canon Rebel in 3 hours than I have since owning and using it. His Power Point presentation covered creative operating modes, ways to control light along with great examples from he and his colleagues at Canon USA. I was able to prepare and use some of Rudy's tips with my digital photography class on a recent field trip to Saint-Gaudens NHS in Cornish, NH. Thanks Rudy."

— Lew Watters

United Thank Offering

On Sunday, November 21 we will celebrate the ingathering of the UTO boxes that each of us have put in our nickels, dimes and quarters. There are also envelopes for bills or checks.

The United Thank Offering (UTO) is an organization founded by women in 1889 and originally supportive of women missionaries. UTO is a personal and family devotional program of the Episcopal Church. It is the sum of our daily thanks for the blessing in our everyday lives—for good weather, happy times and unexpected visits—there are so many things for which we can be thankful. These monetary gifts are shared through grants, both domestic and foreign, to improve the quality of life of others, especially women & children. I invite you all to pick up a Blue Box and join us.

—Pat Saul, UTO Contact Person
